

Locust City Cinema Party: Hocus Pocus

October 10, 2020, 6:30 PM, Locust City Hall, 186 Ray Kennedy Drive, Locust, NC 28097

COVID-19 COMPLIANCE

It is our #1 priority to keep everyone safe and healthy. Therefore, the following measures will be implemented:

- *EVERYONE ages 5+ must present a face mask upon entry. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- *EVERYONE ages 5+ must wear a mask when outside of their vehicle space. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- *You may leave your parking spot only to use the restrooms or visit vendors. You must wear a mask during this time, as well as follow social distancing measures.
- *Refusing to abide by any of these requirements at any time is grounds for ejection of the event, determined solely by the event organizer, in which you, your vehicle, and all other persons in your vehicle will be ejected from the venue.
- *This event is drive-in parking only.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Please carefully read through the FAQ and check back in the coming weeks as new information may be added.

How many people can I bring in my car?

You may bring as many as your car can legally carry. If you'd like to be parked next to friends of family, you'll need to arrive at the same time and enter the gate one after the other.

What kind of vehicle should I bring?

Vehicles are limited to standard specifications. No oversized vehicles or vehicles that obstruct views will be allowed into the venue (i.e. campers, busses, lifted trucks, sprinter vans, etc.).

How much are tickets?

This event is free and open to the public, thanks to our sponsors. The event is limited to drive in parking on a first-come-first-served basis. Spaces cannot be reserved. Spaces are limited.

Will I be able to sit outside of my car?

All spectators must stay within or on your vehicles, or immediately outside to your vehicle in the space between your vehicle and the line designating your parking space. Anyone who purchases drinks from Cabarrus Brewing Co. will need to sit in our designated yard seating while the consuming their beverage; otherwise, you are expected to be at your vehicle.

Can I leave my engine on during the movie? How about my headlights?

No, you will be asked to turn off your headlights once parked and required to turn off your engine before show time.

How will I hear the movie?

Speakers will be set on either side of the movie screen and will be loud enough to listen if your windows are rolled down. The movie will also be broadcast through an FM radio transmitter on 94.5.

Is the event for all ages?

The movie is rated PG for some scary sequences, and for language. For details on parental guidance please visit: <https://www.imdb.com/title/tt0107120/parentalguide>.

This event is a Locust City Cinema Party. This event is branded differently than the Family Movie Nights because we have vendors who sell alcohol at the Cinema Parties.

Are pets allowed?

Service animals only, please.

How early can I arrive? What time does the show start?

Do not arrive to the venue before 6:30pm on 10/10. Gate access will open 6:30pm. Show starts at 7:30pm. Please plan to be parked in your space by 7:20pm.

Will there be restrooms available?

Yes. Portable units will be available at the back of the event space.

Will there be concessions available?

Yes. Vendors include Hot Diggity Dog, Wilson's Famous Funnel Cakes, Tropical Sno Shaved Ice, and Cabarrus Brewing Company.

Can I bring my own food and drink?

Yes. Food and non-alcoholic beverages will be allowed into the venue via coolers. No grills or cooking accessories will be allowed. Alcoholic drinks must be purchased at the event and consumed within the marked beer garden area.

Will there be merchandise available for purchase at the show?

Some of our sponsors will have merchandise, crafts, etc. for purchase. back later as we finalize possible merchandise to be available at the show.

How do I get to the venue?

Locust City Hall's address is 186 Ray Kennedy Drive, Locust, NC 28097.

There are two entrances into the backyard. Please enter the backyard by the entrance to the left of the Veterans Memorial, or at the entrance behind the library on Kerri Dawn Lane. A Park staff member will greet you at the guest and give directions on how to park.

Can I leave early?

You will be permitted to leave early but please be respectful and cognizant of other guests and their movie experience. Any re-entry will be placed in the back of the drive-in rows.

Is this a rain or shine event?

No. The event is dependent on the weather. We will post on our social media pages if the event is postponed.

Thank you for your cooperation!

—The Locust Parks and Recreation Team